

Designers 4 Haiti Symposium

Monday April 19 // Architecture 147 // 7pm

Panel discussion on the following aspects concerning Haiti:

Culture // Hans Bernard // Local Haitian, Microbiologist, Manager of Waid's Haitian Restaurant // Seattle resident who will share about the culture of Haiti and his own personal experience there immediately following the disaster

Code & Structure // Mark Pierepiekarz, PE, MRP Engineering LLC // Local engineer who will discuss the role of code in natural disasters and share his experiences on the ground in Haiti and Chile

Academic Response // Jeff Hou // PhD Chair, Associate Professor of Landscape Architecture, Adjunct Associate Professor of Architecture and Urban Design & Planning, UW, BE // Co-leader of the UW earthquake-response studio focused on China

Future Response // American Institute of Architects // University of Washington College of Built Environments // Architects Without Borders // National Organization of Minority Architects // Local disaster relief and professional organizations will be set up in Architecture Hall to discuss how they make a difference through architecture

designers4haiti.org

